COME CELEBRATE ADVENT AT FIRST PRES

For the Four Sundays of Advent (Nov. 30, Dec. 7, Dec. 14, Dec. 21), our Advent season sermons will be based on John 1:1-18 – and the incredible way that “The Word Became Flesh.” Join us at 8:50 a.m. or 11:00 a.m. for worship.

The younger disciples of the church will be presenting The Christmas Scene Revisited, on Sunday, December 7, at the 8:50 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. worship services. Church members Suzanne Brantley (at the piano) and Teresa Negley (choral conductor) will be leading the children of our church in this re-telling of THE STORY of the season. Let your soul soar with the music, pictures, and narration of the story of the birth of Christ featuring the First Pres. children.

We hope you and your friends will Come to the Stable (our outdoor living nativity) and to Bethlehem Square (an indoor interactive re-creation of a first century town square) on Saturday night, December 13. Performances will be held at 6:30 p.m., 7:30 p.m., and 8:30 p.m.

Join us on Christmas Eve, December 24, for our Candlelight Services of Lessons and Carols. The 5:00 p.m. service will include a children’s story with a re-enactment of the nativity. The 9:00 p.m. service will feature additional musical selections from our choir.

ADVENT DEVOTIONAL INFORMATION

Our 2014 Advent Devotional, Reel Christmas – Discovering Christ or Religious Themes in Favorite Holiday Films is now available as a print version you can take home with you.

You may also view the devotional online daily on our church website blog at <http://www.firstpreswh.org/blog/> or our Facebook page starting the first Sunday of Advent, November 30. If you would like to receive the daily devotions via e-mail (the Advent Devotional will take the place of our staff devotionals during Advent), then please be sure to indicate below. Please fill out even if you already receive the current devotional.

Please help us visit our hospitalized members!

The tightening of HIPAA regulations has meant that we have missed visiting some of our members during their hospital stay. If you are a member or a friend of this congregation, or you have a family member admitted to any hospital, please call the church office and let the pastors know.

Thank you for helping us stay in touch with the congregation.

COMING IN 2015: OM, OM BOOK DISCUSSION CLUB

Plans are underway for an Odd Month, Odd (3rd) Monday Book Discussion Club to meet for the first time on Monday, January 19 in the Upper Room. We will have some light refreshments and we will discuss Jan Karon's new book, Somewhere Safe with Somebody Good.

On March 16 we will discuss Bill O'Reilly and Martin Dugard's book, Killing Jesus.

On May 18 we will discuss Sharon Peters' book, Trusting Calvin: How a Dog Healed a Holocaust Survivor's Heart.

On July 20 we will discuss Deborah Salomon's book, American Mirror: The Life and Art of Norman Rockwell.

If these events attract enough interest, we will offer an afternoon session at 3 p.m. and an evening session at 7 p.m. A minimum of eight persons will be needed to warrant offering both times. Please contact Alan at the church (294-3121) to express your interest and to indicate your time preference to attend. Plans are underway to get at least two copies of the titles to have available for checkout in the library and you may contact Jonathan Owen about ordering a personal copy. If we have good attendance and interest for these sessions, then titles for September and November will be added to the list above.

Come and join us for food and fellowship at our December gathering.
We will meet at 11:00 a.m. on Monday, December 8, in McLeod Hall.

We will then head to Ruby Tuesday for fellowship and lunch.

CALLING ALL VETERANS!

Veterans Day 2014 has come and gone. The names submitted to us were included in the Prayers of the People on Sunday, November 9. We are still compiling a record of all of our church members/ friends who are veterans or currently serving in our armed forces. Please help us by e-mailing to office@firstpreswh.org, calling the church office at 294-3121, or completing the form below and putting it in the offering plate. Thank you!

GENEROSITY SHOWS as we work and give together

First Presbyterian Church of Winter Haven operates with a unified church budget. This means that the ministry that we conduct through all our program areas falls under a single church budget, which is supported by the tithes and offerings of our members and friends. Every person who generously gives in support of this budget is a partner in everything that we do, from preaching to teaching, to the care of our own children in the nursery and the children in Honduras through international mission.

In our 2015 operating budget, the extent to which we generously share resources so that the church can be the church is revealed.

Subtotal Committees	$ 36,740

Total needed to fully fund First Presbyterian Church's ministry in 2015: $ 1,041,140

A unified church budget is all about partnership, as each member of the church shares as a partner in the overall ministry of the church. (No one person can take sole credit for the sharing of faith or the works of charity, leaving someone else responsible for the sidewalks and sewer lines.) Each time any of us drops a dollar in the plate, we have helped every area of ministry.

As we move into 2015, our generosity will show in ministry as each of us takes part in walking as a disciple of Jesus Christ. Thanks for helping us show God's love in all that we do.

The 2014 Advent Devotionals (hard copies) are ready to be picked up in the narthex and McLeod Hall and will be available through computers on the church's web site beginning the First Sunday of Advent, November 30, 2014.

On Tuesday, November 4, 2015, the Session approved the theme for the 2015 Advent Devotional:
"The Nativity Story and the Stories of Our Nativities"

As many of you know Dr. Negley has collected a number of Nativity sets over the years. Most likely many of you have Nativity sets as well. Not all of these will contain many pieces, although some of you may own very elaborate Nativity sets. Some might just feature the Virgin Mary and Christ Child while others may be of the Holy Family. Some might include the shepherds, the Wise Men and an angel, while others might also include other people of the village of Bethlehem and animals. The Nativity scene may appear on a Christmas tree ornament or be a one piece carving, sculpture or music box. Others may have the scenes painted on a gourd or sand dollar or the scene might be woven in fabric or needlepointed on canvas. They may be quite colorful or monochromatic. They may be made of delicate china or durable felt Like we did with favorite Christmas tree ornaments several years ago, we would like to get photographs of one of your favorite Nativities. If you have an elaborate or large Nativity set, then Alan could come to your home at your convenience to take the photograph. If you own a smaller more portable Nativity set, then we would appreciate it if you could bring the Nativity scene or set to the church office to be photographed.

We would then ask you to write a couple of paragraphs telling us about the Nativity scene or set. Information you might include:

- Was the Nativity scene or set made by a loved one or maybe you made it in Sunday school or Vacation Bible School?
- Of what material(s) is your Nativity scene or set made?
- Was it a gift to you or a family heirloom you inherited?
- How long have you owned the Nativity scene or set?
- Did you purchase this Nativity scene or set while on vacation (for example, in Africa, the Holy Land or Europe)?
- Is it a small painted plastic version (often sold in dime stores)? Was it your first Nativity and therefore dear to your heart? Inexpensive though it was, it helped you learn the story of God's great gift of love to the world.
- Does the Nativity scene or set have a special place to be displayed in your home during the holiday?
- Do you keep the Nativity scene or set out all year long to remind you of Christmas?
- Who sets up the Nativity set and are the characters always placed in the same position?
- Do you traditionally read the story of Jesus' birth while gathered around the Nativity set?
- Other information or stories you are willing to share as to why this particular Nativity scene or set is precious to you.

Please call Alan at the church 294-3121 to inform him of your willingness to participate. We will begin taking photographs as soon as possible after Thanksgiving. I will be happy to come out to your home and take the photograph if that is more convenient.

With the photographs and the two paragraph narrative, we will have a great start towards the 2015 Advent Devotional. We have discovered that this project succeeds by working on it almost a year in advance. As in the past, scripture verses and a prayer will be added to accompany your contributions. Thanks!

SUNDAY WORSHIP SCHEDULE

At 8:50 a.m., members and friends of First Presbyterian Church are invited to attend The Gathering. This service is held in the sanctuary. The piano is the primary instrument for leading in congregational music with a variety of instruments adding special touches from week to week. The prayers in worship and the flow of the service help the congregation gather in God's love. The Gathering ordinarily lasts 50 minutes and will conclude with the Benediction at 9:40 a.m.

At 11:00 a.m., you are invited to attend our later morning worship. This service is held in the sanctuary with music and responses regularly led by our chancel choir and accompanied by organ and piano. In the tradition of our church, cultivated over the last few decades, a full liturgy gives the congregation opportunities for spiritual enrichment and the sense of God's love and grace. This worship service ordinarily lasts one hour and concludes with the Benediction at 12:00 p.m.

We hope you will join us in worship, study, and fellowship!

CONNECT With Us at Sunday School!

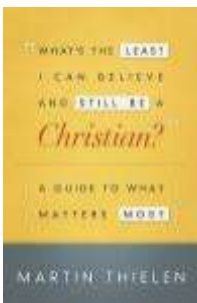

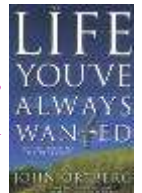

Children ages three and four gather in Room 108 for their own Sunday School time of crafts, snack, Bible lesson, and fun.

Children in kindergarten through fifth grade will rotate through Art, Science, Cooking, Storytelling, Computer, and Movies on Sunday mornings. The theme changes every 6 weeks. On October 26 they begin the Good News rotation.

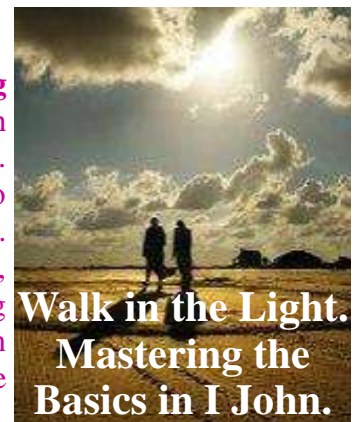

The Youth of the church, those in Middle School and High School, are invited to come hang out in the Student Center from 9:45 - 10:45 a.m. We have a variety of volunteers who will lead this engaging class filled with faith-building, friendship, fun, food, and great times.

Connect - Grow - Thrive meets in Room 207. The class has been studying the book, The Life You've Always Wanted: Spiritual Disciplines for Ordinary People by John Ortberg. All are invited to join in this discussion filled class. Members of the class take part in leading the discussion each week.

The Perspectives Class meets in the Geneva Room and is facilitated by Dr. Jim Threlkel and Glenn Thomas. They are focusing on Martin Thielen's book, What's the Least I Can Believe and Still Be A Christian? Everyone is invited to join in this thought-provoking discussion time. Pastor and author, Martin Thielen, has compiled a list of ten things people need to believe and ten things they don't, in order to be a Christian. This lively and engaging book will be a help to seekers as well as a comfort to believers who may find themselves questioning some of the assumptions they grew up with.

Dr. Steve Negley's class meets in the back of McLeod Hall. The topic is: Mastering the Basics in I John. This eight-week study will take the class on a journey through a little book (I John) tucked near the back of the New Testament. Long before C.S. Lewis and his look at "Mere" Christianity, a writer named John was putting pen to papyrus and helping early Christians explore the essential elements of their faith. Addressing a congregation where faith and practice had taken some wrong turns, John shared the good news of how things could move in the right direction. Bring your Bible and be prepared to explore how we can walk in the Light and walk in love; test the spirits and be aware of antichrists; live as children of God who love one another; and revel in how God's love inspires our love.
